Chloe Deloach Davis

Tobin D. Clarke

Hosted by Amanda G., popular New Orleans podcaster, radio host, and national comedian.

Precious Stones 3:40 - Artist Daniel Crook challenges men to think beyond toxic masculinity through his intimate paintings.

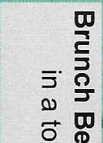

This is a Teenage Love Letter 6:49 - A young woman writes a letter to her past, to love, and to what the future might hold.

Chasing the Dragon 12:16 - Despite a prejudice cop, a trans detective uncovers the truth of a murder, and shows that it's a fatal mistake to underestimate someone based on gender.

OUT in the Streets 17:21 - When your family rejects you, where do you go? As 40% of homeless youth identify as LGBTQ, living the truth can also lead to living the streets.

Brunch Before Baptism 15:30 - A comedy about family drama in a toxic situation with a splash of holy water and a twist.

Listen 4:36 - A depiction of the myriad struggles experienced daily by trans children and teenagers.

Enclosure 10:58 - A quiet girl, who always lives in the enclosure, wants to break out of the chain she's been caught in.

Heather Has Four Moms 14:08 - When Heather decides to lose her virginity on her 15th birthday, she must confront motherly wisdom and advice x 4.

Reshaping Beauty 7:15 - In a world where beauty is often defined narrowly, how would our perceptions change if we dared to idealize other types of beauty.

Intermission performance by:

Flashmob New Orleans, the first local dance company that uniquely offers people from all walks of life the opportunity to dance and perform!

Myra 54:01 - A transgender Mexican-American is lodged into a love triangle with a notorious gang leader and another who turns out to be not so different from herself.
